

Grant Thornton Société d'Avocats and Grant Thornton advise SEMIA, a subsidiary of the Condition Monitoring Group (CMG) Ltd., on the acquisition of D.J.B. Instruments France

19 January 2022

Grant Thornton Société d'Avocats and Grant Thornton advised SEMIA, a subsidiary of Condition Monitoring Group (CMG) Ltd, one of the few specialists in the field of aerospace vibration measurement in the world, on the acquisition of D.J.B. Instruments France.

SEMIA is part of the Condition Monitoring Group, which operates worldwide in the UK, Germany, France, Italy and the USA and specialises in the field of acoustic and vibration analysis and measurement instruments for transport, aerospace and energy industries.

D.J.B. Instruments, founded in 1974, is a leading European manufacturer of piezoelectric accelerometers (and associated equipment) and a provider of calibration services.

This acquisition will enable the Condition Monitoring Group to continue its development with the skills and know-how of D.J.B. Instruments France and to increase its field of expertise and opportunities thanks to the complementary nature of the entities that make up the Condition Monitoring Group Ltd.

Grant Thornton Société d'Avocats team was led by Stéphane Bénéant (partner) supported by Marc Huynh (senior manager) and Olesya Monegier du Sorbier (manager) on the Corporate/M&A aspects. Cécile Didolot (director) and Mailys Tixier (manager) for the labour law aspects. Stéphany Brévost and Elvire Tardivon-Lorizon (partners) and Ronan Journoud and Amanda Quenette (managers) for the tax aspects.

Grant Thornton: Nicolas Tixier (partner) and Tabatha Garand (manager) on the financial due diligence.

The sellers were advised by Armin Cheval (partner) and Pascale Engel (lawyer) of ACD Avocats.
