

Grant Thornton Société d'Avocats in the spotlight of the Legal 500 EMEA

15 April 2022,

Grant Thornton Société d'Avocats is thrilled to be recognised in the Legal 500 EMEA 2022 edition, confirming its position as a key player in Europe. The firm and his lawyers are ranked in Tax, Employment and Corporate M&A.

Caroline Luche-Rocchia, Partner in Employment law is once again rewarded with the « Next Generation Partner » grade.

Grant Thornton Société d'Avocats would like to congratulate the team for this achievement and thank those who participated in the research, clients and peers for their positive feedback and support.

An in-depth overview can be found on Legal 500 EMEA.

Tax (Band 5): Anne Frede; Elvire Tardivon-Lorizon; Stéphanie Brévost and Pascal Luquet

Feedback: 'The practical and concerted approach of Stéphanie Brévost's team has enabled us to better anticipate the challenges of new regulations and to define our priority actions. The exceptional responsiveness of each element of her team brought us great comfort.'

"Stéphanie Brévost has a 360 degree vision."

"Great responsiveness as a team and as individuals. We do not feel just like a 'number' working with the firm."

Employment (Band 4): Caroline Luche-Rocchia

Feedback: 'They are proficient in labour law, firm and unshakable, and also excellent in negotiations.'

'Their response is quick and fees are reasonable. Their team works to makes things happen.'

'They are always positive and constructive. The client is always very well considered and listened to, which I have not found in other firms which are satisfied with the work 'done'. The firm is very well organised. The communication is excellent, the availability too.'

Mergers & Acquisitions (Band 5): Stéphane Bénézant

Feedback: 'Stéphane Benezant is recommended for his expertise and knowledge of the practices of large groups.'

'Very good relationship established with the target, high-quality due diligence and in excellent cooperation with the target company, excellent analytical ability and to respond to the client's needs, adaptability during the process to be as close as possible to the client's needs.'

'Grant Thornton is a very good firm, very close to the partner in charge of the acquisition file as well as the associates (very flexible and collaborative). A very appreciable ability to adapt, especially in remote work with sometimes very short processing times. Very appreciable simplicity of processing the tasks to be accomplished as well.'
