Who we are

Grant Thornton Chile has 42 years of experience providing personalised attention to clients in Chile, with a special focus on owner managed businesses and companies operating under the supervision of external entities.

Where we are

We operate from our main office in Santiago, the country's capital and main business centre. We also provide services to other cities in the country including Concepción (where we also have a branch), Temuco, Valdivia, Valparaíso, Viña del Mar, Antofagasta and Arica among others.

How we work

The services that we provide are distinctive, of the highest quality and personalised in order to address the specific needs of each one of our clients.

We are committed to providing services to the highest standards of operation, through professional quality based on experience, personal and team commitment; and effective communication with owners and management.
