Who we are

Established in 1984, Delta Grant Thornton is one of the leading accounting, auditing, tax and advisory firms in Gabon. The firm is led by three partners, who are all French Certified Public Accountants.

What we do

We provide a range of services to our clients, including:

Where we are

Our office is located in Libreville, which is the country's capital and main business centre and we serve customers throughout Gabon.

How we work

We combine international experience, local business and technical expertise in our aim to provide a tailored product to our customers. At Delta Grant Thornton we pride ourselves on having a partner-led service for all our clients. There are also important rationales guiding this principle: a belief in accessibility and the need for responsiveness based on understanding the client's business.

Why Grant Thornton

Delta Grant Thornton offers a distinctive customer service to every client, its team of professionals are dedicated and always attentive to customer needs. Moreover, given the proximity between readily available partners and the teams responsible for the missions, the firm is able to reassure its customers with respect to the quality of services being offered. Also adding its continuous success is the tailor made approach that the partners offer to their customers, combining their international knowledge and experience together with their local expertise. Altogether, these distinctive features allow Delta Grant Thornton to provide added value services to each and every customer.
