Tarik Al-Jibori
Managing partner

“With the natural resources, highly educated population and key geographic location of Iraq there is an increasing market for the services Grant Thornton Iraq can provide.

As stability and security continue to increase throughout the country, Grant Thornton Iraq is well positioned to capitalise on opportunities to support both the growing needs of international clients moving into Iraq as well as growing new revenue streams from the new businesses being established throughout the country.

We also have excellent contacts within almost every ministry in the Iraqi government.”

Who we are

Grant Thornton Iraq was founded by three partners who have thorough experience of working inside and outside of Iraq. The firm has impressive infrastructure and is licensed across all 18 Iraqi provinces and is well placed for growth with clients in both the public and private sectors. The firm will initially focus on advisory services but has plans to expand into the audit market.

Why Grant Thornton

The structure of our firm is designed in such a way that we are able to serve the global needs of our clients through common methods and processes, and common values.

Globally, we operate under common professional, ethical and independence standards. This allows us to structure our resources in the most appropriate way for the needs of your organisation. We can harness and develop the skills of our people fast and effectively to serve you. Our entire offering is underpinned by a unique set of values.

We measure our clients’ satisfaction through constant communication and seek to continuously improve our service delivery. Our unwavering commitment to quality and risk management is supported by a variety of policies, procedures, and tools. This means our clients can be confident of high-quality work.

In addition to our international experience, We excel in providing consulting services through our expert consultants who are characterised by expertise in the field of public and private sectors, which rarely meet in the local experts present in the country, in addition, we combine the possibility of our work in Iraq in general, and in the Kurdistan region, which is characterised by privacy laws that apply in the region.
